Footnotes:

- ^{1/} Period Covered: The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- ^{2/} Electronic Filers: In addition to paper reports, a state slate mailer organization must file electronically if, beginning January 1, 2000, the organization receives or makes payments totaling $50,000 or more for the purpose of producing slate mailers. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.sos.ca.gov.
- ^{3/} Pre-Election Statements: File the pre-election statements if payments of $500 or more are received or made during the corresponding period to produce a slate mailer in connection with an election. If a state election is held in 2009, a filing schedule for that election will be posted on the FPPC website.
- ^{4/} Semi-Annual Statements: File the semi-annual statements if payments of $500 or more are received or made to produce a slate mailer during the semi-annual period. The semi-annual periods are: January 1 through June 30, and July 1 through December 31.
- ^{5/} Extended Deadlines: Because the January 31 filing deadline falls on Sunday, this filing deadline is extended to February 1, 2010.

Additional Notes:

- Late Statements: Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
